Program Introduction

Established in 2013, the Grenada Citizenship by Investment Program grants foreign investors citizenship through a contribution of USD 235,000 or a real estate investment of USD 270,000. The process takes 3-4 months and offers benefits like visa-free access to 145+ countries, dual citizenship, and eligibility for the US E-2 Investor Visa.

Eligibility Criteria

To qualify for citizenship the main applicant must be over 18 years of age, meet the application requirements, and select one of the following 2 options available:

- Contribute a non-refundable USD 235,000 to the National Transformation Fund, supporting Grenada's development in tourism, agriculture, and energy. This applies to single applicants or families of up to four.
- Invest a minimum of USD 270,000 in a government-approved real estate project, held for at least five years. Options include luxury resorts and villas, offering potential rental income and property appreciation.
